Playoff Scenarios

Player Eligibility

A player is eligible to play in the playoffs if at least one of the following is satisfied during round robin play:

1. The player plays in the field for 3 outs AND completes a plate appearance.
2. The player pitches 3 outs.

Tie-breaker criteria

1. Overall total points, based on 2 points for a win, and 1 for a tie.
2. Head to head competition, if available, and it involves only those two teams. If three or more teams are tied on points, we will move to tiebreaker 3 immediately
3. Least runs allowed, best two games
4. Average runs/game allowed over all games.
5. Average runs/game scored over all games.
6. Coin Flip

All Monday semi-finals are 9 innings, 10 run rule after 7 innings in effect.

Semi final games have 3 hour time limits in effect, with no new inning started after 2:45

UNLESS the game is tied, in which case, the game proceeds inning by inning, until we have a winner.

All Monday Championship Finals are 9 innings, no time limits or 10 run rule in effect. Note:

The higher seeded team will be Home team. If the game is between two 1st place or two 2nd place teams, a coin flip will decide home team.
